SCHOOL
ASSOCIATES

ASSOCIATES

Pacific Oaks College and Children’s School enjoys a distinguished history of achievements and leadership in early childhood education, human development, and related human services fields. While tuition revenue provides the bulk of institutional resources, the excellence of our diverse and growing programs is in large part the result of the generous support of alumni, families, and friends of Pacific Oaks.

The leadership, faculty, teachers, students, and staff of Pacific Oaks appreciate every donor and every gift. Contributions at all levels provide support for operations, scholarships, program development, faculty research, teacher development, and much more.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the Associates is conferred upon individuals, couples, families, foundations, and companies that make an investment in Pacific Oaks. Those who donate a cumulative amount of $1,000 or more within one fiscal year (June 1 to May 31) are eligible for an Associates membership. Donations can be made to the College or Children’s School.

GIVING SOCIETIES

The Associates donor group is comprised of four giving societies, each named after an individual or family who influenced Pacific Oaks’ mission and who continue to define the institution today. Based on the amount given in a fiscal year, our giving societies recognize and celebrate especially generous and leadership-level giving to Pacific Oaks.

WELLS SOCIETY

$1,000 - $2,499

Phillip Wells was a doctor and graduate of Stanford Medical School, and his wife, Marguerite, was a nurse. Along with six other Quaker families, the Wells bought Broadoaks School from Whittier College for $33,000 and founded the Pacific Oaks Friends School. Rooted in Quaker values of community, equality, simplicity, and nonviolence, the school opened with 10 teachers, 65 children, and the active participation of their parents.

Benefits of joining the Wells Society include:

- Invitation to annual reception honoring donors
- Recognition in the Honor Roll of the Annual Report
- Subscription to Pacific Oaks College and Children’s School Alumni Newsletter
- VIP seating at the Evangeline Burgess Memorial Lecture Series event

NOMURA SOCIETY

$2,500 - $4,999

True to their commitment to peace and social justice, the founders hired Taka Nomura, a Japanese woman who spent two years in an internment camp and worked in its nursery school as a founding faculty member. Nomura worked for 19 non-consecutive years at the Children’s School.

In addition to the above, benefits of joining the Nomura Society include:

- Commemorative gift

MORGENROTH SOCIETY

$5,000 - $9,999

Edwin Morgenroth earned a master’s degree in psychology from the University of Southern California and served as the second president of Pacific Oaks College. His wife, Molly, had a master’s degree in education from the University of Wisconsin and had been the in-service training director for federally funded nursery schools in Los Angeles during the Depression. She was the first director of the Children’s School.

In addition to the above, benefits of joining the Morgenroth Society include:

- Brainstorming breakfast with President of Pacific Oaks and Executive Director of Pacific Oaks Children’s School

BURGESS SOCIETY

$10,000 and above

Evangeline Burgess joined Pacific Oaks in 1949 to succeed Molly Morgenroth as director of the School. She became president of the College after it opened in 1959, and even hosted graduation ceremonies in her home. She remained president until her death in 1965. Following her death, President Richard Nixon bestowed upon her a posthumous honorary doctorate from Whittier College in 1965. In 1968, Marianne Wolman established the annual Evangeline Burgess Memorial Lecture Series, which to this day remains a tradition at the College.

In addition to the above, benefits of joining the Burgess Society include:

- Participation on Pacific Oaks College President’s Advisory Council
